Sailplane Racing Association

The SSA and SRA have extensive lists and links to contest resources that will be of help to you in organizing a contest. These are available at the SSA web site (www.ssa.org) under the "Sailplane Racing" button and on the SRA web site (<http://sailplane-racing.org/>). There are several helpful guides posted here including "How to fly contests" developed by John Good as a guide to competitors. Excellent. See the direct link here. Might be something to refer entrants to. <http://sailplane-racing.org/>

Pilot Ranking List

The pilot ranking lists al US competition pilots on past performance used for entry into US soaring contests. John Leibacher has developed and maintains this list and the SSA gratefully acknowledges Mr. Leibacher for his invaluable efforts. <http://soaringweb.org/PRL>

Worldwide Soaring Turnpoint Exchange

The Worldwide Soaring Turnpoint Exchange is a database of turnpoints from around the globe. Developed and maintained by John Leibacher this exchange hosts all of the contest waypoint databases along with SUA (Special Use Airspace) for the USA in formats compatible with most glide computers. The soaringweb.org site is mirrored at soaring.xingu.net and soaring.gahsys.com and <http://soaringweb.org/TP>
